THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. IV. RALEIGH, N. C., NOVEMBER 19, 1862. NO. 8.

Mr. Fowle offered the following resolution, which passed first reading and was referred to a select Committee.

Resolved, That a select Committee of five be appointed to enquire into the expediency of appointing agents to purchase provisions in the Eastern section of the State, upon the credit of the State, and transport the same to the interior, to be disposed of for the relief of the people, and that the Committee be directed to report by bill or otherwise at its earliest convenience.

On motion of Mr. Waddell the rules of order of the last House of Commons were adopted temporarily for the government of this.

Mr. Fox offered the following resolution which lies on the table for reference in future to the Judiciary Committee:

Whereas, there is great complaint among the people on account of the exorbitantly high prices of articles of prime necessity, "Provisions, Salt, Leather," etc., growing out of a scarcity of the articles and owing to "extortioners and speculators," be it therefore

Resolved, That the Committee on the Judiciary be requested to enquire into the subject and the propriety and expediency of legislation on the same, and if practicable to prepare a bill to meet the exigencies of the case; and to report to this House at an early day.

Mr. Watson introduced a resolution requiring the Secretary of State to purchase 500 copies of the ordinances of the State Convention for the two Houses.

On motion of Mr. Watson, the rules were suspended and the resolution was put on its third reading.

On motion of Mr. Amis, the resolution was then amended by making it a joint resolution, and passed.

Mr. Fox presented a memorial from citizens of Chowan County, looking to the better defence of Eastern Carolina and recommending the raising of eight or ten thousand troops for this purpose. Read and laid on the table.

Mr. Waddell, from the Committee appointed to wait on the Governor, reported that His Excellency would forthwith communicate by message with the two Houses.

A message from the Senate proposing that the two Houses proceed at 1 o'clock to elect a State Printer, and announcing that Mr. W. W. Holden was in nomination in that body, was received and concurred in. The Governor's message arriving, was then read and on motion of Mr. Williams, was sent to the Senate, with the accompanying documents and a proposal to print 20 copies of the message for the use of each member of Assembly, and 100 copies for the Executive.

A message was received from the Senate announcing its concurrence to print.

A message from the Senate proposed that a joint select Committee be raised to provide rules to regulate the intercourse between the two Houses.

The House concurred, and the Speaker appointed Messrs. Shepherd, Amis and Keener, as the House branch of the Committee.

Mr. McKay introduced a resolution that a Committee be appointed to establish rules for the government of the House and that 250 copies of the rules be furnished for the use of the members—adopted.

Mr. Amis, a resolution authorizing the Public Treasurer to pay Wm. R. Lovell, assistant doorkeeper of the last House of Commons, six dollars and mileage, for two days' attendance and services at the present session. Passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules—engrossed, and sent to the Senate.

Mr. Peebles introduced a bill to exempt persons over 45 years of age from militia duty. Read and laid on the table.

The report of the Public Treasurer was referred on motion of Mr. Shepherd to a joint select Committee on the subject of Finance to be hereafter appointed.

Mr. McKay, from the Committee on rules for the government of the House, reported the rules of the last session with sundry amendments, which were adopted.

A message from the Senate transmitted an engrossed resolution in favor of J. W. Alspaugh, Clerk of the last Senate, which passed under a suspension of the rules.

The House proceeded at 1 o'clock to execute the joint order for the election of State printer.

Mr. Shepherd nominated Mr. Wiley J. Palmer, Principal of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum. He had long thought that the State printing should be done there, and that the profits, if any, should go into the State Treasury.

Pending the calling of the roll, Mr. Worth asked whether it was understood that the profits arising from the public printing were to go to the Treasury in the event of its being given to Mr. Palmer.

Mr. Peebles assured the House on behalf of Mr. Palmer that in the event of his election, that all receipts over and above the expenses of printing, should go into the Treasury.

Mr. Fowle said that it was necessary that the public printing should be done with dispatch. The Governor's message and other documents should be printed at once. This was necessary to intelligent legislation. Mr. Holden could do the printing with neatness and dispatch. He doubted whether it could be done at the Asylum, having been informed that the printing establishment there was deficient in materials. The power press formerly used there had been disposed of and hand presses were now used, which were wholly inadequate to do the work.

Mr. Peebles assured the House that Mr. Palmer would be able to execute the work promptly and neatly.

The Speaker stated that this discussion was irregular and could only be continued by universal assent.

Objections being made to further discussion, many members changed their votes and some confusion resulted. The following is the vote of the House as nearly as the reporter could ascertain it:

For Mr. Holden—Messrs. Allison, Alford, Amis, Avera, Barringer, Bunbury, Best, Bryan, Bryson, Bugsie, Carpenter, Craig, Dunn, Flynt, Fowle, Gentry, Gilliam, of Granville, Glenn, Green, Grimsley, Hampton, Harris, of Chatham, Henry, of Henderson, Heaton, Hoyard, Horton, Kelly, Keener, Laws, Lyles, Mann, of Pasquotank, McCorkick, McRae Nissie, Parks, Patterson, Pearce, Perkins, Richardson, Robbins, Russell, of Brunswick, Sherwood, Shober, Smith, Spruill, Waddell, Wallen, Walser, Watson, Woodall, Worth, Young, of Iredell, and Young, of Yancey—50.

For Mr. Palmer—Messrs. Baldwin, Barnhardt, Beall, Beam, Brown, Bumpass, Bynum, Cobb, Cowles, Crawford, Davenport, Davis, Fleming, Foy, Gilliam, of Rockingham, Grier, Harris, of Gaston, Hawes, Henderson, Hodges, Hooper, Joyner, Jenkins, Keener, Kirby, Lemmonds, Logan, Love, Manning, Mallay, Morrison, Peebles, Person, Reynolds, Rives, Rhodes, Robinson, Russ, Russell, of Craven, Shepherd, Stanford, Stansill, Wellborn and Williams—44.

Before the result was announced, the House adjourned.

A Good Chance for Active Service.

We call the attention of those wishing to enter the army and desire to be near the flashing of the guns, to the Card of S. Vann Larkins, in this paper. Mr. Larkins is raising a company of mounted men to join the body guard of Gen. R. E. Lee, and has established an office in this city, where recruits will be received. Persons subject to conscription and not enrolled can join this corps. See card and call upon Mr. Larkins for particulars.

☞ Extra copies of the Progress, containing the message, can be had by application at the office.

Hon. Wm. Ballard Preston died on Sunday last.

ADVERTISING.—The Progress is a newspaper, published for the masses, and as it will circulate generally throughout the State and be read by everybody, its importance as an advertising medium should not be overlooked by business men. See advertising rates elsewhere.

Five Cents.

Our Carrier's are authorised to sell the Progress on the streets and at the Railroad station. Single copies, FIVE CENTS.

To Our Old Exchanges.

We send the Progress to our old exchanges with the hope they will renew their favors. We shall also be obliged to papers in the State with whom we exchange if they will notice our revival, and insert our terms, which will be found elsewhere.

Executive Department North Carolina,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE (Militia,)
RALEIGH, Oct. 25, 1862.

General Order, No. 9.

I. THE COLONELS OF THE MILITIA REGIMENTS of this State will immediately direct the Captains to call without delay on every family within their districts for the purpose of purchasing and collecting such articles of Clothing, Blankets, Jeans, Linseys, Shoes, Socks, Leather and Carpets, as may be sold or given for the army in the field.

2. The Captains will keep a list of the articles, and the name of the person from whom purchased or received, and the price. The Colonel will bring these lists and the articles with as little delay as possible to the Quartermaster in this city, when funds will be given to pay for them.

3. All donations for individuals or companies will be received for them, if the names or companies are given, and the articles will be sent to them by the Quartermaster at Raleigh, in charge of special messengers. Those making special donations may be assured that the articles will be given to the parties for whom they intend them.

4. Each Colonel will send to this office a list of the Shoemakers, Tanners and Cloth Manufacturers in his Regiment, with the probable amount each manufactures, pay particular attention to the purchase of shoes and leather, see that none go into the hands of speculators, and seize for the use of the soldiers any of these articles going out of the State, or in the hands of speculators for that purpose.

5. The expenses of the Officers engaged on this duty, and the transportation of the articles will be paid, and any officer who neglects or fails to comply with this order will be court martialled and reduced to the ranks.

By order of Governor VANCE:

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[REPORTED FOR THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

FROM MISSISSIPPI.

MOBILE, Nov. 17.

Special to Advertiser & Register, dated Abbeville, 11th, says our cavalry again occupy Holly Springs. The enemy have retired to Grand Junction and Bolivar.

LATER FROM THE SOUTH.

MOBILE, Nov. 18.

Special to Advertiser & Register, dated Okolona, 17th, says a scout just arrived in Saltillo from between Purdy and Corinth, reports he saw 600 wagons passing from Corinth to Jackson loaded with Stores. Five regiments of infantry and two of cavalry were guarding the train and driving beeves. The enemy have a small force at Bethel, Gladell and Corinth. They told the citizens as they were passing from the latter place to Jackson, that they were going to Jackson and Memphis.

Fifteen or twenty armed slaves left from a point seven miles north of here this morning, making their way to the Abolitionists at Corinth. A body of cavalry have started in pursuit.

FROM TENNESSEE.

KNOXVILLE, Nov. 17.

We have advices from Memphis to 10th inst., inclusive. It is said that Porter's fleet will attack Vicksburg as soon as it can pass the bar at President Island.

Gold is selling in Memphis at 46 per cent. premium over green backs.

About 800 bales of Cotton per week were being sent in from East Tennessee, but none from Arkansas and Mississippi.

Western men in the Abolition army are said to be anxious for peace.

All the negroes in the vicinity of Memphis have left their owners. Every Abolition officer has a black servant.

A gunboat guards the tri-weekly steamers to Cairo.

The order excluding certain families of Confederate soldiers has not been enforced.

Gen. Price's troops are in fine spirits and eager to avenge the loss at Corinth.

FROM FREDERICKSBURG.

RICHMOND Nov. 18.

Up to half past 12 o'clock to-day the enemy had not occupied Fredericksburg but were on the heights opposite. The skirmishing yesterday was artillery duel and not resumed this morning.

Gov. Vance's Message.

We lay this important State paper before our readers this morning and we know that it will be eagerly read from one end of the State to the other. It is characterized throughout by a patriotic solicitude for the welfare of the State and country and abounds in practical suggestions, which if acted upon and promptly carried out, will tend greatly to lighten the burdens and remove the troubles of our people. The people of North Carolina have every assurance that if they will do their whole duty in the great struggles through which we are passing that their Executive will do his. He is wholly devoted to the cause of the South and the good of his State, and if the Legislature and people will stand by him, nothing will be left undone that can be done for the protection of every inch of our soil. But as everybody will read the message for themselves we shall say no more.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—There was a collision on the N. C. Railroad near Concord, we learn, on Monday last. The cars were injured pretty badly, though but little damage was done to passengers, no one being hurt seriously.

HOTELS.

EXCHANGE HOTEL,
HILLSBORO' STREET, RALEIGH, N. C.

HAVING PURCHASED THE PROPERTY IN THE City of Raleigh, recently occupied by Major Phillips, and known as "Phillips' Hotel," I have opened it for the accommodation of the public under the name and style of EXCHANGE HOTEL.

The extensive improvement now going on, and which will be completed as soon as possible—the erection of new buildings and the thorough overhauling and renovating of old ones—will render the Exchange convenient and comfortable; and the proprietor is determined that its management and internal arrangements shall be such as to compare favorably with the first class hotels of the country.

The table will be abundantly supplied with the best the market and the country affords, and no efforts or expense will be spared to render the house in every respect a comfortable home to its guests.

The Exchange is located on Hillsboro' street, some two hundred yards west of the Capitol.

Thirty to forty large and commodious rooms will be ready for occupation by the assembling of the Legislature.

A liberal share of public patronage is respectfully solicited. Give us a call and we will endeavor to treat you well.

Omnibuses will be in attendence at the cars to convey passengers to and from the Exchange.
